Dear Lynn,

This is just a note to thank you again for your hospitality and exceptionally fine support.

I was particularly impressed that despite your own personal grief - which I know is great - you selflessly and tirelessly saw to the needs of others. I am sure Butch wanted you to be his CACO because he trusted you and respected your sensitivity and judgment. You have superbly justified that trust during these past difficult days.

It was a great pleasure to meet your lovely wife, Nancy. I wish you both all success and happiness in the New Year.

Yours,
